I. APPLICATION

The provision stated herein shall apply to all individuals supported by Blue Water Developmental Housing, Inc. (BWDH).

II. POLICY

It shall be the policy of the organization to provide procedures whereby dissatisfaction with services may be addressed. Every individual who uses the services of BWDH has the right to fair and efficient process for resolving any complaints about the way those services are provided.

III. DEFINITIONS:

Individual Supported: a person for whom BWDH provides services in a residential setting, or through its community based support services program.

Interested Party: a person in the life of the individual supported who is interested in their care and well-being – a parent, other family member or guardian.

Grievance: a disagreement between individuals supported and/or an interested party, and BWDH about the way services are provided.

1. Grievance with BWDH: situation in which the services provided are not satisfactory to the individual supported or interested party.
2. Person Center Planning Grievance: situation in which Person Centered Plan is not being implemented satisfactorily, in the opinion of the individual supported and/or interested party.

Person Centered Planning: means a process for planning and supporting the individual receiving services that builds upon the individual's capacity to engage in activities that promote community life and that honors the individual's preferences, choices, and abilities. MCL 330.1700(g)

Interdisciplinary Team: People working together to meet the needs of the individual supported. Team members are chosen by the person or family receiving services, based on desire and need (i.e., medical necessity). The team will include people chosen by the individual supported.
